

Orphans To Stay In Mich.

11 Murray Moore Children Remain With Relatives Named as Guardians

PONTIAC, Mich., Nov. 14.—(P)—The 11 Murray Moore orphans were ordered kept in Michigan today in the care of relatives and two court-appointed guardians.

Oakland county Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore made the ruling after a hearing.

Its effect is to reject, for the time being at least, all offers of adoption of the children, including that of Pittsburgh's Mr. and Mrs. John Donald Babbs.

Mr. and Mrs. Babbs ruled, however, that the children may visit the Babbs in Pittsburgh on week-ends for the next two months. Meanwhile, the Babbs' adoption offer will be investigated, he said.

Judge Moore ordered that the children remain at their home in nearby Leonard in the care of the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moss of Royal Oak. Moss is 72, his wife 67.

At the same time he named Richard T. Moss, an uncle of the 11, and Arthur Mercure, brother-in-law of the dead father, as guardians.

Moss and Mercure will handle all financial affairs.

Judge Moore, in announcing his decision, said he preferred that all adoption offers be investigated fully before such means be resorted to.

The court's decision came down after about an hour and a half's consultation in which the participants included the two eldest children, Gerard, 15, and Beverly Ann, 13.

Also conferring with the judge were the children's grandparents. Elsewhere in the county building a tense group of others waited, among them Mr. and Mrs. Babbs who want to adopt all the children.

The well-to-do Babbs spent last night with the children at their home in Leonard, a small town 25 miles from here.

It was a private meeting. No others had known of it. The Babbs wanted it that way.

Babbs Like the Youths
"They were adorable. We got along fine," said motherly Mrs. Babbs.

The Babbs had driven here hastily to make their adoption proposal in person.

Still today Beverly Ann and Gerard were insistent on staying at home. Presumably they told their feelings to Judge Moore.

They felt that way even after the Babbs, themselves parents of three children, had faithfully promised Beverly Ann and Gerard a "mother and father you'd like."

The orphans lost their own parents, Murray Moore, 36, and Mary Jean, 33, in a collision of the family car early Saturday with an auto carrying a group of beer-drinking teen-agers. Four of the five teen-agers also were killed.

Continue Search For Last Victim Of Train Wreck

EVANSTON Wyo., Nov. 14.—(P)—Wrecked workmen moved away tangled steel bit by bit today in a continuing search for another victim of the smashing train wreck near here Monday. Sixteen bodies have been recovered and one man still is missing.

Union Pacific railroad authorities said they believed now the death toll would be 17. They have been unable to find a trace of Dr. Robert Thompson of Fitchburg, Mass. Friends who survived said they were sure he was aboard the train.

The missing man's wife remained in a hospital here, one of the two most critically hurt. The other was the fireman aboard the locomotive of the streamliner City of San Francisco.

Allied Planes, Unchallenged, Deal New Blows to Rail Line

Eight Locomotives Destroyed by B-26 Bombers Before Dawn; 10 Others Said To Have Been Damaged Earlier In Day

U. S. EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea, Nov. 14.—(P)—Allied warplanes today swept North Korean skies without challenge and dealt new blows to the crippled Communist rail system.

Far East air forces (FEAF) said B-26 light bombers destroyed eight locomotives in pre-dawn raids. Ten others were reported destroyed in the 24 hours ended at midnight Tuesday.

An air force spokesman said he hesitated to claim a total of 18 since there might be some overlapping. But he said he felt certain at least some of the eight were in addition to the previous 10.

Allied fighter sweeps through Mig Alley in northwest Korea before noon Wednesday failed to turn up any Communist jets. It was the fourth straight day the Reds refused to tangle with U.N. planes.

U. N. ground forces Wednesday threw back two company-sized Red probing attacks on the western front and scattered a Communist platoon on the eastern front.

Little Other Action
An Eighth army Wednesday evening communiqué said there was no other significant action along the front.

Allied troops Tuesday beat back two vicious Red attacks at opposite ends of the line.

Late Tuesday night the Reds used about 10 tanks in a moonlight assault on U.N. forward positions west of Chorwon on the western front. Red infantrymen followed under cover of mortar and tank fire.

The Chinese Communists were driven off after a 25-minute battle. At least two of their tanks were claimed destroyed by U.N. armor.

The Allied tanks were used primarily as mobile artillery. The fight ended shortly after midnight. By dawn Wednesday the Communists had withdrawn from the battlefield.

Count 618 Bodies
On the eastern front Allied troops counted 618 North Korean bodies on the battlefield after hurling back a coordinated attack by five Red battalions. The attack began Monday night.

An Allied tank force pushed about 6,000 yards ahead of U.N. lines above Kumhwa on the central front. Four Allied tanks were damaged by Red fire, and only one was recovered.

FEAF warplanes mounted 895 sorties as skies cleared over Korea Tuesday. Primary targets were among the highest of the war.

"The Communists are striving so hard to put their rail lines in shape they are using many locomotives to haul flat cars loaded with steel rails to the areas affected," the air force spokesman said.

Pilots also reported direct hits

Commies Challenge UN Truce

Suggest Agreement On Cease Fire Line Now Or Break Off Talks for Armistice

MUNSAN, Korea, Nov. 14.—(P)—Communist negotiators challenged the Allies today to agree to a cease-fire line in Korea now or break off the truce talks.

Brig. Gen. William P. Nuckols, official U. N. spokesman, said the challenge was ignored in a welter of words that marked today's five hour and five minute armistice session.

He said the challenge was made by Chinese Maj. Gen. Hsieh Fang, member of the Red's two-man subcommittee.

Hsieh's challenge came during a wrangle over whether a military demarcation line and buffer zone shall be established now, as the Reds insist, or whether the question shall be postponed until other armistice questions are settled.

Allies Refuse To Agree
The Allies refuse to agree formally to a line now, because they say that would establish an immediate cease-fire. This, in turn, they say, would take military pressure of the Reds and enable them to stall on other armistice terms.

Hsieh called this "fantastic talk."

"If that is the course you choose to follow," he said, "then why not stay away."

Quotes Red Delegates
Nuckols released other quotations from the Red delegates to show:

1. They want to end the fighting now, in the air and on the sea as well as on the ground. A U. N. communiqué said this became "unmistakably clear."

2. The Reds say there will be no armistice unless the Allies agree to setting up a military demarcation line and buffer zone now.

3. The Reds agree that establishing a buffer zone now would "mean cease-fire in fact."

4. The Reds conceded that once established, a military demarcation line should not be changed later.

Language Sharper
Nuckols said the language of negotiators at today's meeting—the longest unbroken session they've yet held—was sharper than it has ever been. Another meeting was scheduled for tomorrow.

All of the discussion revolved around item two of the agenda involving the military demarcation line and buffer zone.

General Hsieh was quoted: "What does item two require? It requires that we make a clear indication now, reach a clear agreement as to where to stop fighting."

"If this is not solved, then item three, four and five cannot be proceeded with; no armistice will be achieved."

Retail Grocers Reelect Gwinn As President

The Sedalia Independent Retail Grocers' association held its annual election of officers Tuesday night reelecting Howard Gwinn as president for 1952.

Virgil Madorin was reelected vice president and Leonard Anderson was reelected treasurer. Directors elected for a two year term were Glenn Lewis, Harry Kanter and Frank Henderson. These will be installed at the December meeting.

Attorney Chester Wolfe was the speaker of the evening, his subject being, "Legal Points Which Grocers Should Be Familiar With."

It was decided to again sponsor the annual Christmas homes decoration contest and plans were also made for children's movie theatre party to be held during the Christmas holidays, at which time all children of the city will be the guests of Sedalia's independent retail grocers.

Following the business session, refreshments were served.

U. S. to Supply Tito With Arms Under Agreement

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—(P)—The United States and Yugoslavia today signed an agreement covering terms on which American military aid will be extended to Marshal Tito's Communist regime.

It provides for an American advisory mission at Belgrade which will check on the use made of munitions supplied under the new foreign aid program.

Other provisions likewise follow the pattern of agreements the United States has entered into with other nations receiving American arms assistance.

The agreement was signed at Belgrade today by Tito and U. S. Ambassador George V. Allen, the State Department announced.

Tornado Rips Third of Town; No Fatalities

Only 2 of 7 Hurt Are Serious; Laugh At Wind's Oddities

CAMPBELL HILL, Ill., Nov. 14.—(P)—A tornado destroyed nearly a third of this southwestern Illinois town, but the residents still could smile today at the wind's oddities.

Not a single person was killed. Seven persons in the 800 population were injured, but only two seriously.

The storm leaped from the southwest late yesterday and cut a 400-yard-wide scar across the center of the town.

While the wind fashioned a disaster scene, it also played some strange tricks.

The town fire engine, bright and unscratched, stood in its usual place on the ground floor of the fire house. But the fire house itself was gone, lifted away by the wind.

A threshing combine, brand new and waiting for a buyer while resting on a lot behind the general store, was picked up and hurled against the side of a house 80 yards away.

And Leslie C. Isom, a barber returned from a hunting trip after the storm, found his bird dog and escaped injury on the first floor of his shop. The second floor of the structure and most of the shop itself had crumbled like a flakey pie crust.

The town is without electricity and telephone service. Power company officials estimate it will be sometime tomorrow before electricity is restored. One telephone line connects Campbell Hill with other areas, but the town will be without intracity communication until late today.

Most of the town's homeless found lodging with friends or relatives. Others went to the grade school gymnasium where the Red Cross set up an emergency aid station.

Gold Star Tag Days Friday and Saturday

Gold Star tag day, sponsored by the American War Dads and Auxiliary, will be held Nov. 16 and 17.

Friday noon tags will be sold at the Missouri Pacific shops.

Saturday tags will be sold all day on the street in the downtown section with headquarters in the lobby of the court house.

The fund from the tag sale will be used for gold star children and to aid veterans' families.

Many Missed School During Cold Snap—Appeal for Clothes for Students

Food Also Needed by Families Here; Older Folk Can Use Clothing, Too; Greatest Need Is For Good Shoes

"Sedalia—Where Folks Enjoy Life." That is the slogan of the town in which we live, and yet there comes the astounding news that children in our community could not go to school during the very cold weather just passed because they did not have warm clothing. Many who did go were inadequately clothed.

Mrs. John Murrell, school nurse, made a plea for help and it was answered. She received a great deal of clothing, two snowsuits, boots, lots of nice dresses, especially for older children, but there is still a great need.

The little youngsters, seven, eight and nine, need clothing badly. There is a great need for overalls, boots, shoes, coats and, of course, snowsuits.

A church group called Mrs. Murrell and told her they would give a little help as soon as they had a meeting. If all churches and other groups and organizations would help as well as individuals there would be no children in Sedalia cold or hungry.

This is the month of Thanksgiving—followed by the Christmas season. This is the time when people feel within them the spirit of true charity and love.

Hope of Finding 3 Brothers About Gone

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 14.—(P)—Hope of finding the three missing Klein brothers alive was virtually gone today as firemen and police continued their search of the Mississippi river where two caps were found.

Kenneth Klein, Jr., 8 and two of his brothers, David, 6, and Daniel, 4, left home Saturday afternoon to play in a nearby park. They failed to return home. Police said they believe the three had drowned.

Gov. Warren Enters Race Against Taft

Feels There Must Be National Change As He Announces

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Nov. 14.—(P)—Republican Governor Earl Warren of California entered the 1952 presidential race today.

The 60-year-old Warren, his party's candidate for vice-president in 1948, announced his decision to seek the GOP presidential nomination in a 400-word statement which asserted:

"There must, for the welfare of our country, be a change in national administration, but if this is to be the Republican party must present a definite constructive and workable program for the nation."

"We can not hope to win solely on the mistakes of the present 20-year administration, many though they are."

The third term governor agreed to head a favorite son ticket of national convention delegates in California's primaries next June.

"I am giving thought to what extent I shall urge my candidacy in other states before the convention," he said in the statement he read slowly to newsmen.

He said he will make a decision on that score "in proper season."

A rival Republican faction hopes to field an unscrutinized slate in California, but Warren, tagged as the strongest dark horse by Senator Richard Nixon (R-Calif.)—already has the pledged support of most of the state party leaders.

Combat Team Ready To Drop On Commies

A MILITARY BASE IN JAPAN, Nov. 14.—(P)—Brig. Gen. Thomas J. H. Trappell's 187th Regimental combat team is ready to drop in on any part of the Korea battlefield.

The 3,000 paratroopers, with 100,000 pounds of equipment, made a successful test jump on Korean soil yesterday. They were flown to the Taegu area by about 110 planes of the 315th Air division (combat cargo) and were brought back to Japan before dawn today.

Dubbed "Operation Showoff," the maneuver showed off America's ability to move men and equipment swiftly for surprise blows against an enemy.

SE Missouri Struck By Tornado, Little Loss

PARMA, Mo., Nov. 14.—(P)—Southeast Missouri mothered a tornado yesterday, but the winds were too weak to do much damage here before skidding destructively through Illinois and part of Indiana.

One man was injured slightly and three farm houses and out buildings were damaged near here as the winds swirled into storm strength.

The town of Parma itself was not hit as the tornado skipped over farmland between here and the little town of Catron.

Most of southeast Missouri was rocked by strong winds.

Charge Reds Kill UNPOWs

U. S. Army Lawyer Says 5,790 Taken By Communists Have Been Atrocity Victims

PUSAN, Korea, Nov. 14.—(P)—The U. S. Eighth army's top lawyer today said Communists have killed at least 5,790 United Nations prisoners of war, other than South Korean troops, in atrocity slayings since the start of the war.

Col. James M. Hanley of Seattle, chief of the Eighth army's judge-advocate section, said in a statement about 5,500 of the listed victims were Americans and the rest volunteers from other countries.

"The figures compiled by the United Nations command are far from complete," Hanley said, "but show a record of killings and barbarism unique even in Communist China."

More South Korean Victims
He said untabulated atrocity killings of South Korean soldiers probably far outnumber the tabulated losses and no not even touch atrocity slayings of Korean civilians.

Hanley said South Korean military casualties in general have run at least twice that of other UN countries.

He said also that North Korean and Chinese Red troops have shown particular animosity toward South Korean soldiers and there have been occasions when captured South Koreans were murdered but other UN troops taken with them were spared.

Kill 250,000 Civilians
Hanley's statement estimated about 250,000 Korean civilians had been killed by Communists since the start of the fighting.

He said 25,575 political prisoners and local South Korean officials were killed in the Red retreat to North Korea in the fall of 1950. And additional 10,284 North Korean civilians were killed in Korea since the North Korean army tobe as the North Korean army made a further retreat toward the Yalu river border between Korea and Manchuria. Most of the latter were labeled "reactionaries," Hanley said.

Includes 3,000 Yanks
Hanley's figures showed that North Korean Reds had killed about 3,000 American prisoners of war up to Oct. 31, 1950, about the time Red China entered the fighting. From then on most of the atrocity killings have been the work of Chinese Reds, he said.

Since the Chinese entered the war they have killed 2,643 UN soldiers, exclusive of South Koreans, Hanley reported. He said North Korean troops in that time had committed only 147 atrocity slayings.

Hanley broke down the killings attributed to Chinese since Nov. 1, 1950, as follows:

Americans, 2,513; Turks, 40; British, 10; Belgians, five; other UN troops, 75.

Conflicts With Claims
"This is in sharp conflict with the Chinese claim of compliance with the Geneva convention in the treatment of war prisoners," Hanley said. The Chinese Communist government did not sign the Geneva convention.

Hanley said release of American prisoners by Chinese Reds last winter was "an obvious propaganda attempt to create a favorable atmosphere for future captures."

"That attempt was futile and that it was so recognized by the Chinese is evident from the record of the number of atrocities and their failure since early last spring to release additional prisoners."

Chinese Nationalists Report 380,000 Killed

TAIPEH, Formosa, Nov. 14.—(P)—The Chinese Nationalist defense ministry today said the Communists had put to death 380,000 former Nationalist service men in the South China provinces of Kwangtung and Kwangsi in the past six months.

The ministry said the victims were accused of being counter-revolutionaries. It reported its information came from intelligence agents at Canton.

Appeal for Clothes for Students school students are planning to fill 25 Thanksgiving baskets. They will do the same at Christmas.

From one who has an opportunity to see the needs comes the appeal—children in school need clothes—pre-school age children need clothes—families need food—old people with small pensions need food. The season of giving is upon us. It should be a season of great joy to all.

"Not only the children, but the old are in need," said Mrs. Murrell. "And no family in need can get too many baskets. They not only need food for Thanksgiving and Christmas—but they must have food for other days, too."

Anyone having children's clothes or who will help in buying needed clothing—especially shoes—may contact Mrs. Murrell, telephone 1781.

MacArthur Blasts Administration In Speech At Seattle, Leads to View He's a Candidate

Even Those Who Invited Him to Make Non-Political Speech Feel General Has Ambition to Become President

SEATTLE, Nov. 14—(P)—General Douglas MacArthur last night told Seattle and the nation that the Truman administration is following a policy which, if continued, can lead to the ruin of the country.

The general devoted only three minutes of a 45-minute address to the Seattle centennial which he was invited here to open and to which labor groups had urged him to confine his remarks. But he referred frequently to the pioneer spirit and attitude in his blistering attack on the federal government.

He never mentioned Mr. Truman or the Democratic party by name—but he left no doubt that he felt the "ruinous processes" of which he spoke could be halted only by a change of administration.

"The people have it in their hands," he declared in his speech, which was nationally broadcast, "to restore morality, wisdom and vision to the direction of our foreign and domestic affairs."

And immediately one of the men who had asked him to refrain from discussing politics while opening the city's 100th anniversary program charged him with being a candidate for President of the United States.

The charge was made by Cong. Hugh Mitchell (D-Wash.) in a statement issued within minutes after the general concluded his talk on the University of Washington campus—where political speakers normally are banned.

"I have long suspected that MacArthur fancied himself in the role as the Republican nominee. I am more firmly of that opinion after listening to him tonight," Mitchell said.

MacArthur told the 9,000 persons who squeezed into the university's athletic pavilion that what he termed the administration's blunders are leading to a third world war, its domestic policies are drifting into socialism and spending taxing are imperiling the whole structure of the republic.

"Expenditure upon extravagance, extravagance upon extravagance have so burdened our people with taxation and fed the forces of inflation, that our traditionally high standard of life has become largely fictitious and illusory," he said.

The Democratic leadership, he charged, is engaging in bombastic and provocative statements, which increase world tensions. It also, he said, is "taking steps which inexorably tend to lead towards war."

Taft Backers Still Believe In Their Man

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14—(P)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur's newest blast at the Truman administration increased talk among some Republicans today of his pos-est, a segment of the Republican party continues to believe that MacArthur, who will be 72 next January, offers the Republicans a glamorous figure and a dramatic speaker who might well find a place on their ticket.

Essentially, those Republicans who are thinking most about MacArthur are counted in the Taft camp. There have even been some suggestions that Taft and MacArthur team up, but those who know the senator and the general well are certain neither would be interested in second place.

Bricker, longtime political ally of Taft, told reporters that a swing through the east and mid-west has convinced him Taft will be the GOP nominee.

One Youth Killed In Train-Car Crash At Hardin Crossing

HARDIN, Mo., Nov. 14—(P)—One youth was killed and another critically injured early today when a Santa Fe streamline train struck the car in which they were riding at a crossing here.

Dale McWilliams, 17, was killed instantly. His companion, Robert Ballard, 17, was taken to the hospital in Excelsior Springs, Mo. Ballard's condition was termed critical. Both boys live in or near Hardin.

Dr. John S. Baber, coroner of Ray county, said the accident occurred at 12:32 a.m. when the car, owned by Ballard, was struck as it crossed the double track in Hardin.

Miss Kitty Sue Miller, a telegraph operator, witnessed the accident. She notified the section foreman, Harold McWilliams, without knowing his son was a victim in the accident.

Enlistment, Mrs. Rosenberg said, is not a "great sacrifice," but a "great privilege."

Low-Down on a high-powered Performer

Let us tell you this:

The Buick pictured here packs more power than you find in any other car of its size and room and price.

That's the power of Buick's newest high-compression valve-in-head eight—the F-263 Fireball Engine, that really gets miles from a gallon of gas.

Add to this the fact that it tips the scales at 3817 pounds curb—weight—and you begin to see why this big-powered beauty is such a nimble-footed number out on the road.

But that's only Chapter I of the performance story.

There's a big-car feel to the way this trim traveler covers the ground—hugs the curves—holds its course on the straightaway—smothers the bumps with its big soft coil springs on all four wheels.

There's big-car room inside—six-passenger room—headroom, hiproom, shoulderroom, kneeroom, front and back.

Come in, look it over, and we think you'll agree—it's big in everything but price.

And that's where it really shines. If you've shopped around you'll know what we mean when you read the price tags, and what they include in the way of standard equipment that shows up as "extras" on so many others. Such things as an oil filter, air cleaner, vacuum booster, built-in summer ventilation are all yours at no extra charge.

It's hard to believe but it's true. If you can afford a new car, you can afford this Buick at the prices we're quoting today.

Better come in and look this smart buy over.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.
*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Old-Timers' Weather Tales Outdone By Fall's Mischief

By Mrs. Harold Priess
CALIFORNIA—No longer can the "old timers" talk about the winters that used to be! When the country goes from gold and scarlet trees over green grass, red cannas, golden marigolds and purple petunias in bloom on Oct. 31 to about 12 inches of snow on Nov. 7 that seems to be a record that will stand for a long time to come.

None of the RFD carriers was able to make a route Tuesday and with school attendance cut in just about half because the school buses were unable to run, school was closed on Wednesday. Thursday and Friday were holidays so the teachers could attend the state convention in St. Louis.

Streets and walks were hazardous and even traffic on highway 50 was almost at a standstill. The only people who seemed to be getting any place were those in the wheelchairs and tow trucks. And there weren't enough of those to go 'round.

Kiwanis Club Elects
Members of the California Kiwanis club elected officers at a recent dinner meeting at the American Legion home. Officers who will take over their duties the first of the year are: H. W. Schmidt, president; Earl Elliott, vice-president; Albert Strother, treasurer, and A. W. Baker, Ray Ehler and Dr. Charles Butts, directors. C. O. Putnam is the retiring president.

New Doctor to Town
Dr. Francis Tarvydas, a native of Lithuania, has brought his wife and small daughter to California from Cicero, Ill., to become associated with Dr. Keyvon Latham at the Latham Sanitarium. Dr. Tarvydas, who graduated from medical school in Lithuania in 1938, came to this country in 1948 and is a naturalized citizen. Since 1948 he has been house physician at the Jackson Park hospital in Chicago, Ill.

District Legion Meeting
The eighth district meeting, Missouri Department of the American Legion, was held in California Sunday afternoon, with 18 posts represented. Ernest Opel, commander of Jobe-Elliott Post, No. 17, called the meeting to order and introduced Roy Carver of Columbia, district commander, who presided. Miss Shirley Bower, accompanied by Miss Shirley Peters, sang two numbers and Al Wal-lach, district rehabilitation officer, spoke to the joint meeting of Legionnaires and Auxiliary members. Separate meetings of the two organizations were then held and followed by the serving of refreshments to both groups by the auxiliary.

Hear Lt. Gov. Blair
Armistice Day was observed in California Monday with a chili supper and patriotic program at the high school under the direction of the American Legion and Auxiliary. The chili supper started at 5:30 and the entertainment, which included numbers by the California high school band, started at 8. Raymond Bolin served as master of ceremonies and John English introduced James T. Blair, lieutenant governor of Missouri, who delivered the address.

Wesley Bayne, who has been assistant to Floyd Hutchinson in the the California Midwest Auto store for the past four years, has been made manager of the Midwest Auto store in Jefferson City. Mrs. Bayne and their three small daughters will join him as soon as he is able to obtain living quarters. Jean Kirchoff, a graduate of the 1951 California high school class, will take his place in the California store.

As a part of National Education Week—Nov. 11-17—the regular meeting of the California PTA will be held Thursday night, Nov. 15, and the business meeting followed by an exhibit of the last nine weeks' work in the grade school rooms. The teachers will

Father of Korean Hero Wants To Name War on Tombstone

GLENWOOD SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—Retired army captain Eugene R. Guild said today he has devoted "more than $1,500 of my son's death benefits" in a constant effort to present to President Truman the viewpoint of one parent of a boy who died in the Korean fighting.

"This viewpoint," he said, "I think is shared by a great many of the parents of the other some 20,000 who have died in Korea and the parents of those who are still dying and will continue to die."

The captain, who wrote the President Nov. 1 asking whether Mr. Truman's failure to award the Medal of Honor to his son was due to his criticism of tactics in Korea, said he was "greatly troubled and disappointed by my failure to reach the ear of the President over the last 11 months."

He added, however, that "I am relieved more and more by the statements from Key West and Washington" concerning the award of the Medal of Honor to Marine Lt. Henry Alfred Commiskey and the award of a Navy Cross to the captain's son, 25-year-old Marine Lt. John Guild, who was killed while fighting at Commiskey's side.

"It indicates that the affair is at least being handled and also that the President is now receiving information which he never got before."

Presidential secretary Joseph Short yesterday told newsmen at tax agency. More than 25 employees have been fired, suspended, or have resigned under fire. Six of these have been collectors in charge of regional revenue offices. Two collectors have been indicted on bribery charges.

Washington, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Secretary of the Treasury Snyder appealed to the public today to help "root out every instance of wrong doing" in the scandal-shaken Bureau of Internal Revenue.

Snyder urged "patriotic and honest citizens" everywhere "who may have knowledge of irregularities to make this information known to the bureau."

Snyder, in an address to a soft drink bottlers association here, said "prompt and effective steps are being taken to eradicate all vestiges of misconduct and inefficiency."

For weeks, there has been a series of scandals involving the big

Key West, Fla., where the President is vacationing, that Mr. Truman considers the Congressional Medal of Honor as "sacred" and would not tolerate "any one tampering" with the procedures set up for its award.

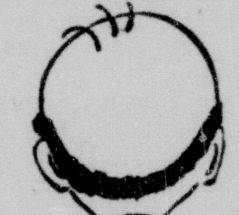

Kimball said the records show young Guild and Commiskey were both initially recommended for the Navy Cross by their division commander but that the commander of U. S. naval forces in the Far East, Vice Admiral Charles Turner Joy, had recommended Commiskey's award be raised to the Medal of Honor.

In addition to his letter of Nov. 1, which a White House spokesman

Governors Go Home Bitter Over Politics

Future Democratic Party Course Still Muddled After Meet

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Nov. 14.—(AP)—Southern governors returned to their homes today with deep and bitter political differences still clouding the future course of the Democratic party in the south.

The three-day southern governors conference was non-political in its purposes. But it spotlighted the rift between leaders of the states' rights Democrats and those who support President Truman and his administration.

One thing certain in the aftermath of the conference: political peace in the south can be achieved only by a compromise, either on the Democratic party platform or the party's presidential candidate.

On the other side, the pro-Truman forces displayed a willingness to challenge openly any move to organize a southern revolt against Mr. Truman.

There was some speculation that Speaker Sam Rayburn, whose party loyalty plate Monday night created an uproar—may have held out hope of a compromise on the Democratic platform.

Rayburn said he did not believe there would be a split in the south and that possible agreement might be reached on a platform.

Gov. James F. Byrnes of South Carolina said platform agreement would mean concession of the civil rights and national health insurance issues. He said it might mean that Mr. Truman will not seek reelection.

The conference had been widely heralded as the possible starting point for an organized "beat Truman" campaign. But Byrnes and others made it clear they had come to the conference with no intention of launching such a move.

Gov. Herman Talmadge of Georgia told reporters this was neither the time nor the place to begin such a drive. Other states' rights leaders declared they will have plenty of time in which to decide a course of action after Mr. Truman discloses his intentions.

Mr. Freeberg pointed out that six out of ten people in the world go to bed hungry every night. Three hundred refugees from the Russian dominated lands cross into the western zone every day.

Mr. Freeberg said, and this presents a tremendous feeding problem. Much of the food needs, he said, are supplied by CROP.

Plans were made for the county campaign and in the near future the county committee will be appointed and will start to work.

Small Nations Urge Big Ones To Cooperate

At UN, Appeals Come For Settling Major Differences at Once

PARIS, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Statesmen from the smaller countries at the United Nations General Assembly today urged the great powers to compose their differences and avoid the dread destruction of a third world war.

The most fervent and most direct appeal was made by Denmark's Foreign Minister Ole Bjorn Kraft, who asked the leaders of the Soviet Union to grasp "the hand extended by the west."

Speakers from Colombia, Uruguay, and Paraguay pointed out that small nations had to pay the price of world war, although only the big powers had the means to start one.

Kraft told the assembly: "Perhaps it is of no importance what a small country says and thinks, broken off sometime Monday night or Tuesday. From the shed were missing several sticks of fire wood. Police investigated."

Eight nighttime parking defendants failed to appear before Judge Jerry Trotter in police court this morning and their cash bonds of $1 each were ordered forfeited.

New Bill Would End Long Session By Mo. Legislature

JEFFERSON CITY, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Missouri voters may get a chance to say what they think about these endless legislative sessions of recent years.

You know how it has been: The legislature starts meeting in January of odd-numbered years. And when it stops nobody knows. Sometimes it keeps going on until time for the next session to start.

All that would be changed under a plan advanced to the voting stage by the state senate yesterday.

It would adjourn a regular session automatically after five months and a special session after 60 days. And members would have an incentive to stay on the job—they'd get $10 a day for every day they answered the morning roll call.

National Farm Loan Assn. Holds Annual Meeting Here

Stockholders of the National Farm Loan association met Friday, Nov. 9, at the Bothwell hotel, the meeting beginning at 12 o'clock with a turkey dinner.

Invocation was led by Dr. R. C. Williams of Sedalia and group singing was led by Miss Irene Ritchey with Mrs. Nellie Monegan at the piano. Special musical numbers were by Mrs. Jack Mock and Mrs. Kermin Riley.

D. S. Lamm, attorney of Sedalia, made a short talk, using as his theme "Where there is no vision the people perish." Mr. Lamm cited towns such as Leadville, Cripple Creek, Michigan Lumber towns and cotton sections of Georgia which did not grow due to the lack of vision, or lack of diversity of interests in the community.

He stated a diversified industrial center and a progressive farming community go hand in hand, as exemplified by communities in Wisconsin and Springfield, Mo. We coordinate farming in Central Missouri, said Mr. Lamm, means planning ahead for the long pull and includes a system of long term credit obtained from soundly conducted institutions, crop rotation, careful selection of crops and livestock, definite planning of water management and terracing, use of fertilizers, all with a view of procuring the highest net income to produce better living conditions for farm family and improved, modernized homes.

He stated that up till now the fertility of the soil in our community has been decreasing, but that with proper planning it is now being conserved. He mentioned that in some foreign countries such as Holland, Belgium and Denmark farms have been under cultivation for hundreds of years and are richer now than ever. He said, "A sound agriculture is

Woman Rushed From Morgue Expected to Fully Recover

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Flabbergasted physicians today predicted the complete recovery of Theresa Butler, 60-year-old widow pronounced dead and sent to the morgue six days ago.

Mrs. Butler abruptly came out of a five-day coma yesterday, talked coherently and recognized her daughter and Dr. J. C. Geiger, city-county public health director.

"From all medical information now possible, Mrs. Butler will probably fully recover," Geiger said after consulting with attending physicians and the daughter, Betty Butler.

Last Thursday, a doctor pronounced Mrs. Butler dead, presumably from an overdose of sleeping pills. But at the morgue a startled attendant heard a gasp and saw her jaw twitch. She was rushed to a hospital.

Until yesterday doctors had feared Mrs. Butler's brain would be damaged from being without oxygen while she appeared to be lifeless. That would have left her just "a living vegetable," they said.

When pronounced dead, she had no perceptible reflexes, blood pressure, breathing or heartbeat—basic symptoms of death.

"Apparently," Dr. Geiger said, "we are going to have to alter our opinions of what are the criteria of death."

Dr. Thomas Ablers, superintendent of San Francisco hospital, described the case as the "most far-fetched and implausible" he has ever known.

The woman's recovery, he said, "just couldn't happen—but it has."

Dr. Geiger said he personally is interested in learning if the administration of whole blood played a significant part in her recovery.

Arrangements were made to transfer Mrs. Butler to a private institution and physicians planned a thorough study of the singular case.

Food & Diets Explained At Lions Club

Attendance Reports For Club Since June Were Also Given

"Food and Diets" was the subject of a talk given by Claude Boul to the members of the Sedalia Lions club at their noonday meeting Wednesday at the Hotel Bothwell. A report on attendance of the club since last June was also a subject on the program and given by Ed. Smith, secretary.

Mr. Boul explained the combination of foods for meats and gave an excellent explanation on how to combine these foods for best health results as well as diets. He was introduced by Kenneth Fallis, program chairman.

Secretary Smith, in his report to the club, explained the average attendance for the Sedalia organization was far below par and stated an action is being taken by the board of directors. He explained the club at present has 89 members and less than 60 percent attendance has been recorded each month since June with the exception of September, when one meeting was 100 percent.

It was also explained the board is taking action to drop all members who are failing in their attendance in accordance with the by-laws of Lions International.

The board held a special meeting Tuesday night at the hotel at which time considerable time was spent on attendance and membership.

Plans for the annual children's Christmas party were discussed at the meeting and it is the hope of the committee in charge that a program equalling that of past years can be carried out.

Harold Seaberg, president, presided over the meeting.

• The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Mrs. Truman Wants to Go Back to Independence

By Drew Pearson

(Copyright, 1951 By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Mrs. Truman makes no bones about her desire to turn the White House over to new tenants.

At a reception the other day, the first lady confided to a friend: "This is a terrible life. We don't have any privacy at all. If I want to go across the hall to see the President or Margaret, I have to get dressed up. I can't just slip a kimono on, for you never know who you'll find in the hall. I'll be glad when we get back to Independence and can live like human beings."

Mrs. Truman said she thought the government should provide private living quarters away from the White House for the first family. She was referring, of course, to the fact that secret service vigilance has been tightened since the attempt on the President's life, so that guards are on every floor of Blair House.

Montana Monopoly

The more the justice department's anti-trust division scrutinizes the NPA deal to put Anaconda Copper into the aluminum business, the more it looks like the most ironic gift to big business of the entire Truman administration. Government attorneys now find that Anaconda's powerful Montana newspapers and Anaconda's close friend, Montana Power and Light, bitterly opposed the government power project at Hungry Horse, Montana. Now, Anaconda has turned round, wants all of Montana's share of the government power it fought. And the NPA plans to fork it over.

Anaconda newspapers also criticized the Harvey Machine Company's methods of lobbying for the aluminum-power contract and the RFC loan. Now Anaconda has turned round and embraced the very same Harvey Machine Co.

More alarming justice department attorneys find to be the strange hold which Anaconda will now have on the state of Montana. Already the giant copper company controls most of the published news in that state. It owns the Butte Daily Post, the Montana Standard, published at Anaconda, the Billings Gazette, the Livingstone Enterprise, the Daily Missoulian, the Helena Independent Record and the Western News of Libby, Mont.

And not having been able to acquire a paper at Great Falls, it has now purchased radio station KFBB in Great Falls—subject to FCC approval.

Muskegon to Mexico

In addition to its Montana operations, Anaconda owns or controls plants and mines in Utah, East Chicago, Perth Amboy, N. J., Buffalo, Ansonia and Waterbury, Conn.; Detroit, Kenosha, Wis.; Anderson and Marion, Ind.; Pawtucket, R.I.; Muskegon, Mich.; Orange, Calif.; Sycamore, Ill. and Hastings-on-Hudson, N. Y. Most of these are operated by Anaconda subsidiaries American Brass or Anaconda Wire and Cable. It was the latter firm which was twice convicted during the war for concealing faulty wire sold to the army, navy and air force.

Anaconda also owns or controls Montana Hardware Co., Interstate Lumber Co., Tooele Valley Railway, Butte, Anaconda and Pacific Railway, International Smelting & Refining Co., Chile Copper Co., Basic Magnesium, Inc., Butte Water Co., Chile Steamship Co., Chile Exportation Co., Andes Copper Co., Potrerillos Railway in Chile, and Greene Cananea Consolidated Copper Co., in Mexico.

These are the ramifications of the third largest copper company in the world which the national production administration now wants to put into the aluminum business, already suffering from monopoly control.

The Two Taft Brothers
Taft forces are so sore at brother Charles Taft for announcing for governor of Ohio that they may put genial Congressman George Bender, a GOP stalwart, into the Republican primary in Ohio to run against brother Charles. There are several reasons for this row over the younger member of the Taft family. Primarily, Bob Taft forces are sore because two Tafts in a political race cause confusion and make the public think one family is out to dominate the state.

Second, brother Charles has not been regular. He was a friend of Franklin Roosevelt, voted for him a couple of times and served under him in the Federal Security Administration and later in the State Department during the war. And Charles also bolted the regular Republicans in Cincinnati where he was a member of the city council and helped elect a Democratic mayor, Albert Chase.

Finally brother Charles turned down Truman's invitation to be ambassador to the Vatican, and because he was long president of the Federal Council of Churches, a strong Protestant organization, this tends to line both Tafts up on the Protestant side in the now bitter controversy over an ambassador to the Vatican. Already Catholic sentiment is none too friendly to brother Bob Taft as a result of Protestant tactics during last year's Senate race against Joe Ferguson.

That's why some Ohio GOP leaders, such as former state chairman Ed Schorr and Congressman Clarence Brown, are considering Congressman Bender as a GOP candidate for governor against another member of the Taft family.

Mailbag:

E. P. A., Brentwood, Calif. — The navy did not refuse to cooperate in filming "The Caine Mutiny" because the mentally unbalanced navy officer was portrayed as an Annapolis man. The navy protested, according to its letter to Columbia Pictures, that "the character delineation of the principals must not be so over-simplified as to make it appear that the navy would tolerate for very long a vindictive and vicious officer in command position or another unbalanced officer plotting against him. In addition, it is stated unequivocally that the navy would not offer cooperation of any kind, should the title include the word, 'mutiny.' As I mentioned to you... there has never been a mutiny in the navy."

Washington Pipeline

General Eisenhower's name will definitely be filed in the Republican New Hampshire primary January 11 by young Republicans associated with Senator Tobey. This will be significant, because in 1948 Ike asked that his name be withdrawn from the New Hampshire ballot. If he lets it stick this time, he will be running and as a Republican. The Russians seem to be using Korea as a training ground. They brought in a brand new batch of pilots last week to fly their MIG-15's over Korea. It was obvious to our pilots that the new Reds were green at combat flying. . . . Only diplomat who got the VIP treatment at the Soviet embassy party last week was Premier Mossadegh of Iran. The Russians supplied Mossadegh with a four-man escort to run interference through the big crowd which clustered three deep around the caviar. (American guests at the Soviet embassy shun Soviet champagne which is sweet and usually hot, but make a bee-line for the bowls of caviar.)

Kitten in the Woods

By Kathleen Briggs

THE STORY: Courtney Benson, guest at the home of Mrs. Lucien Steinhart, invalid nursed by Elizabeth Brownell, has been found dead under mysterious circumstances. The tension of the house, known as Black Firs, is very happy to get away, in company with a young surveyor named Bill Devanter.

XV

"THERE'S my home," Bill repeated. "Park Camp No. 1, variously known as Mosquito Gulch, Dead Horse Canyon or Bachelor's Heaven."

Elizabeth laughed softly. "That last sounds ominous."

"Don't kid yourself. If it wasn't Sunday, the fellows here would be making life miserable for me. Most of them piled into the truck and went to town."

"You mean we're alone?" It was just a question but after the words left her lips she realized that it sounded prim and naïve. Bill chuckled. "Don't worry, you're well chaperoned. Scraps is here and Madame X."

"Madame X?"

"Ummm. Here she is now. How is your brood, Madame?" A sleek jet cat came around the corner of the bunkhouse and finally the granite battlements of Black Firs. The house and its ill-humored occupants seemed to shadow the afternoon.

Bill must have read her mind. Rather abruptly he bade the fire warden goodbye and urged Elizabeth down the winding stairs. Instead of remounting, he led the horses along a path to a sun and needle-drenched bluff that overlooked the heavily forested valley. He sat down and patted the ground beside him.

"I made a mistake bringing you up here."

She stared at him in amazement. "Mistake? It's lovely here." "Ummm. Those lookouts get so lonesome they want to monopolize anyone who has the bad sense to visit them."

"If we're going to the lookout we'll have to get on our horses pronto."

He meant it literally. From a bark-covered shed he led out two well-groomed mares. After helping Elizabeth into the saddle he stared at her dubiously. "Gosh gal, you're going to end up with a pair of scratched knees. Hug Laurie's sides."

"Well I hadn't the remotest idea of going riding when I packed for Black Firs."

THEY wound slowly up a narrow trail. Bill in the lead, Madame X followed them for a while, stalking sedately or suddenly casting all dignity to the winds to pounce at a swirling autumn leaf or an unwary forest insect. Then, as though realizing that the ascent was to be a long one she silently left them to follow some inclination of her own.

It took them half an hour to reach the fire-watcher's tower. The lookout was a genial fellow, a friend of Bill's. He helped Elizabeth aim the telescope, pointing out various high spots of the Green Mountains, the general direction of Lake Champlain and finally the granite battlements of Black Firs. The house and its ill-humored occupants seemed to shadow the afternoon.

Bill must have read her mind. Rather abruptly he bade the fire warden goodbye and urged Elizabeth down the winding stairs. Instead of remounting, he led the horses along a path to a sun and needle-drenched bluff that overlooked the heavily forested valley. He sat down and patted the ground beside him.

"I made a mistake bringing you up here."

She stared at him in amazement. "Mistake? It's lovely here." "Ummm. Those lookouts get so lonesome they want to monopolize anyone who has the bad sense to visit them."

"If we're going to the lookout we'll have to get on our horses pronto."

"Yeah. Too attractive. I want to do a little monopolizing myself."

She smiled, stretched out flat on her back letting the sun bathe her from head to toe. "Tell me about your work then."

"You mean that?" He was incredulous. "You're not being polite?"

"Not polite, just interested. I promise not to fall asleep."

HE laughed. "It's really not that dull. There are many angles to surveying." She let the pun go by and he continued, not in the earlier blatant tone of the barker but in a slow serious voice that showed a deep love and understanding of his work. When he finished, Elizabeth leaned on one elbow and studied him.

"Bill Devanter, you amaze me!" He rolled over and stared laughing into her eyes. "No darling, you amaze me."

"Now there you go!" "Meaning what?"

"Just when I start to realize what depths you have, you begin to paddle around in the shallows."

His sandy eyebrows lifted. "You should be grateful—I can be quite a bore when I get going on surveying."

"I had no idea it was such a fascinating occupation."

He said nothing but began collecting little heaps of pine needles and letting them sift gently on the back of her hand. Finally he brushed them off and with the last one left his hand covering hers.

"We kind of like each other, don't we?" he said finally.

"I think I liked you from the moment I saw you lighting a pipe under a No Smoking sign on the train."

"My independent spirit?" He clapped his hand to his forehead. "My gosh, what must those nuns have thought!"

"I think they appreciated the humor of the situation."

"What are we going to do about it? Liking each other I mean."

She got to her feet reluctantly, wishing desperately that by some miracle she could turn her watch back. "Right now I'm afraid we're heading for Black Firs."

Democrat Pick-Ups

Odds and Ends By News Staff

It was the 35th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Anderson and they were planning on a big family dinner. At first they thought of turkey and then they decided that since they had two big spring roosters on their farm they would just kill the roosters for the feast.

Mrs. Anderson went out, picked up one of the roosters and tried wring its head off. But she had quite a struggle because the rooster weighed six pounds and a half. It was all she could do to swing the big bird, but at last the job was done while her husband of 35 years stood there in his nice new overalls kidding her about not knowing how to wring a chicken's neck. Then he volunteered to show her how. He picked up the other rooster, a seven-pounder, and did the job quick. The headless chicken started to flop and by that time her attention had been attracted by some nearby hunters.

Mr. Anderson yelled at his wife that the chicken was coming toward her—but instead the chicken started toward him. It probably knew the voice of the one who killed it and was going to get revenge—because straight at him it went, and blood splattered over the brand new overalls. He tried to get out of the rooster's way but every time he would move the chicken made another tumble toward him and splattered more blood on him until the new overalls were covered all the way down the front.

Mrs. Anderson laughed—but he did, too. Finally he got away and looked down at himself.

"Never mind," said she, "they are so new the blood didn't soak in. And so she did with: 'Now, wait until they dry.'"

But he had dressed himself up in the new overalls to come to town and he didn't intend to wait any longer.

"No," he said, "I'll go just like this," and he did.

And the next day the rooster, along with his more gentle companion, became the main dish at the family dinner—and the Andersons had a wonderful anniversary.

THE FIRST THANKSGIVING

Loyal to his Captain, John Alden sang the praises of Miles Standish to Priscilla.
"Archly the maiden smiled, and with eyes overrunning with laughter,
Said, in a tremulous voice, 'Why don't you speak for yourself, John?'"

John Alden DID speak for himself, and Priscilla accepted him. Then he broke the news to Miles Standish.
"Wildly he shouted, and loud: 'John Alden! You have betrayed me!'"

But the fiery Captain cooled off in time, and was a guest at the wedding of John Alden and Priscilla Mullins. He thought sadly, as he watched the bridal procession:

"Old and yet ever new, simple and beautiful always,
Love immortal and young in the endless succession of lovers."

Howard Seeks 5-Cent Raise In Bus Fare

By D. Kelly Scruton
The City Council, Tuesday night, held a caucus at the city hall by request of Marvin Howard of the Sedalia Bus Co., who presented his story to the councilmen asking an increase in bus fares. The meeting was called by Mayor Studer and held in the mayor's office.

Howard and his attorney Fred F. Wesner, discussed with the city officials their proposal to raise the fare five-cents. Howard explained that since taking over the bus company several years ago, he has granted a raise to the employees, and recently signed a contract which calls for time and a half for overtime after 56 hours.

Operation Costs Increase
He also explained that higher prices for bus parts, gasoline, tires and new equipment is such that the present ten-cent fare is not enough to keep operation profitable. "In view of these additional operational expenses, we are in need of a raise," Howard said.

Wesner confirmed the statements of Howard explaining no increase had been granted for a number of years, while bus lines in other Missouri cities had increased fares once or twice since 1941.

His attorney called attention to the order of four new buses. At this point Mr. Howard explained those buses would have been operated on butane gas, but he could not receive delivery for some time and, having an opportunity, took two buses which use gasoline. The other two are still on order.

Asked what fare increase he desired, Howard said he wanted a 15-cent straight fare or two tokens for 25-cents. He explained his fare boxes would only handle nickels and dimes.

Council Opinion Divided

After they had presented the case for the fare raise, Howard and Wesner departed. The Council then took up the discussion of the hike; there was a divided opinion as to what to do. No action was taken as it was not an official council meeting. However, from the discussion of those present, some members were willing to grant a raise of two tokens for 25-cents and a 13-cent straight fare.

The council gave its unofficial approval for the city to purchase tickets to the Flood Relief Ball sponsored by the Missouri Pacific Booster Club to be held Friday night. The council officially will vote payment for the tickets at the next regular meeting Nov. 19.

A discussion on the request of Joe Ruddick, manager of the Fox Theatre, to eliminate the city 1-cent admission tax also was held.

Looking Backward

FORTY YEARS AGO

Judge George F. Longan left for Kingston, Caldwell county, to occupy the bench in the trial of a will contest suit.

Over 200 delegates were in attendance at the 46th convention of the State Sunday School association being held at the First Christian church, James E. Park, St. Louis, is the presiding officer, being president of the association.

Superintendent J. L. Walsh, of the M. K. & T., was in Parsons attending a meeting of the safety committee of that railroad.

The drill team of the Queen City Hive No. 7, Ladies of the Macabees, left for Jefferson City to participate in the programs of the state convention of that organization.

The Rev. Harold Cooper, pastor of the First Congregational church, preached in two St. Louis churches Sunday while attending the autumn rally of the Missouri conference, of which he was president.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

The second annual national corn show held in Sedalia closed Saturday, Nov. 13, with the crowning of L. M. Vogler, Hope, Ind., as "corn king." Competition was keen in the exhibits made. At the close of the announcement of winners on the exhibits, an auction of choice displays was held.

Frank Zoll, formerly connected with the Y. W. M. C. A. here and later at Carthage, will go to Kansas City about Jan. 1 to become secretary of the Westport department of the "Y".

Members of the Sedalia boys' band were presented Saturday with an engraved loving cup for services rendered to the State Fair last fair week, and also were given a check for $50.

Bob Thomas In Hollywood--

Gene Autry Blames 'Lazy Stars' for Faltering Flickers

By Bob Thomas

HOLLYWOOD — (P) — Gene Autry today blamed "lazy stars" as partly the reason for a decline in movie business.

"This business was founded on the star system," said the cowpoke from Tioga, Tex. "I think a star should promote himself as much as possible in every available medium. They should tour the country regularly and help build themselves into top attractions. Personalities have always maintained this business, and big names can bring it back to its peak."

"But too many stars are laying down on the job. Not only do they not try to sell themselves in other mediums, they even neglect the movies. A lot of them are content to do two pictures a year for a net of $300,000. They complain the government will take the money if they make any more."

"Sure, the government will take the money. But I say these stars would be better off making four pictures a year at $50,000 apiece. In that way they could bring down the cost of their pictures, so the studios could make more profit. And the stars would get before the public more, building themselves into better attractions."

Far from being lazy, Gene is perhaps the hardest working film personality. During this year, he will have filmed six feature pictures and 52 half-hour television shows, made 70 show appearances all over the country, performed on a regular air show and made many records. In addition, he produces another TV series and manages his many financial interests. He allows himself merely two weeks vacation yearly.

"I started work early in life, and I like it," he admitted. "Besides, I feel that if you are going to have a successful career in show business, you should do everything you can to keep yourself before the public. And that includes television."

Autry's entry into TV caused loud protests from some theater owners. He now feels his decision has been justified.

"I just got back from Boston, where my show played to the biggest crowds I've ever had there," he said. "I'm convinced the reason is my TV show. You see, my pictures don't get a very big play in the big eastern cities, but the TV show has built up a following, especially among the kids."

"And that helps the pictures, too. While I was in Boston, there were 30 theaters playing my pictures. Actually, the theater owners who squawked about my going into TV are the ones who never play my pictures anyway. They were afraid if I was on TV, that would give people another excuse for staying home."

Johnson Co. Redistricting OK in 5 Areas

But Two Others, With Warrensburg, Turn Down Proposals

WARRENSBURG — School district reorganization was voted Monday in five Johnson county areas and was rejected in three including Warrensburg.

The five large districts that will be formed are Kingsville R-V, Holden R-III, Centerville R-V, Knob Noster R-VIII and Leeton R-X. The reorganization plan prepared by the county school board was rejected in the Warrensburg area, which would have been RVII, and the areas whose districts would have been R-VI and R-IX. R-VI is in the northeastern part of the county and R-IX is in the southeast corner.

In each of the five areas that voted for reorganization, an election will be called within 30 days by the county school board, and six school board members will be elected in each new district.

The six-member boards will have complete charge of school administration over their entire districts. Each board will decide what kind of school is to be maintained in its district.

Reorganization was approved in the Knob Noster area by only four votes. The margin was: For 296, Against 292.

The proposal carried by the greatest margin—171—in Holden, where 411 persons voted for reorganization and 240 against it.

Leeton approved reorganization by 146 votes—240 For and 94 Against.

Kingsville gave it a 70-vote majority, with 97 persons voting For and 27 Against.

In the Centerville area, the vote was: For 84, Against 67, giving reorganization a 17-vote majority.

The Warrensburg area defeated reorganization by 120 votes. A total of 48 was cast in favor of it and 168 against it. The vote by wards was: First—For 7, Against 41; Second—For 16, Against 48; Third, For 17, Against 36; Fourth—For 8, Against 43.

The plan lost by 46 votes in the R-VI area, where the vote was For 34 and Against 80, and was defeated by 53 votes in the R-IX area, which voted For 34 and Against 87.

Modzelewski, Md. Fullback, Back of Week

'Mighty Mo' Earns Title for Gridiron Feats Against Navy

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—(P)—Ed Modzelewski, Maryland fullback, is this week's back of the week in the Associated Press poll of sports writers and broadcasters.

Known as the "Mighty Mo," the 210-pound fullback earned the nod for his feats against Navy. Maryland gained only 138 yards by rushing and Modzelewski gained 127 of them. Two of his plunges went for touchdowns.

Modzelewski proved so pesky in the first half that Navy pulled its secondary closer and closer to the line. This opened the way for Maryland passing that broke the game wide open for a 40-21 Maryland triumph.

The Maryland workhorse was not the only back to gain praise. Another fullback, Bob Mathias, whose 96-yard touchdown run sparked Stanford to its upset win over Southern California was high on the list. So was Dick Panin's 88-yard run on Michigan State's first play from scrimmage, a play that sparked M. S. C. to a 35-0 conquest of Notre Dame.

Jerry Coody, Baylor halfback, ran back a punt to set up the tying touchdown against Texas, then later scored on the winning touchdown as Baylor beat Texas for the first time in 12 years.

Others praised included: Bill Burkhalter, Rice; Tony Scardino, Missouri and Hugh McElhenry of Washington.

Jalopy Owners to Race Own Jalopys

It will be a big afternoon Sunday, when the owners of the local jalopy automobiles endeavor to take over the running of the cars and race in a "grudge event." Owners have decided to try their hand at the wheel and let their drivers sit on the sidelines for one event at the weekly VFW Jalopy races being held at the 28th and Ingram track.

No. 15 will have Jerry Brown behind the wheel; Vint Siegel will steer No. 276. No. 6 pilot will be Jim Bahner; Clyde Scott will handle No. 105; the Harvey Bros. cars No. 69 and No. 380 will have drivers picked from the Harvey Brothers and Alfred Hall will engineer No. 29.

They are entered in a feature and special event of 15-laps to follow the time trials.

Other than this special event there will be the time trials; a trophy dash of 7 laps, consolation race of 20 laps and the main feature of 25 laps.

C. M. Kelly will be in charge of the public address system. No admission will be charged for the racing events this week, "everything is on the house" explained one of the VFW officials.

Start Homecoming Week at Hubbard

Homecoming week at Hubbard high school was opened this morning, when Professor J. B. Hylick addressed the senior class on "The Significance of Homecoming."

He spoke of the origin of "Homecoming," as being an American school tradition, starting, he believed, among the colleges and later picked up by the high schools. In his talk he cited outstanding accomplishments of many of the Hubbard graduates and discussed the need for an organized alumni association for the school.

The program for the week calls for the annual homecoming game with Douglass of Lexington to be played at 2:00 p. m. Friday on the gridiron in Liberty park. That night the coronation exercises will be held in the school auditorium at which time the queen will be crowned by Floyd Payne, Hubbard Tiger quarterback. Presentation of a trophy by Coach Carl Tuggle will be made to the outstanding Tiger player of the 1951 season.

A special program for all the Hubbard graduates will be held during the event.

Plans are underway to secure Moon Finney and his orchestra from Mexico for the program and dance. The seniors are sponsoring a floor show for the event. There will be no admission charges for the evening program, it was announced.

Prof. Hylick during the morning stressed no activity will interfere with the classes and should such arise that activity would be cancelled.

Swedes to Australia To Meet Americans

SYDNEY, Australia, Nov. 14.—(P)—Sweden's tennis team arrived here today to try to capture the Davis Cup.

Manager Gunnar Galin said the Swedes should give the Americans a "great fight" in the inter-zone finals in Melbourne Dec. 13. The United States is already working out here.

The winner of the U. S.-Sweden match will play Australia in the challenge round Dec. 26.

Williams College Would Quit Scouting

WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass., Nov. 14.—(P)—Len Watters of Williams has urged his fellow small college football coaches to join in cutting down on scouting to "help demphasize the big-time aspect of college sports."

Watters said in a statement last night that scouting methods have "badly outgrown" their usefulness in recent years. An agreement to limit them, he added, "would benefit everybody."

Joe, Unplanning Now To Retire, Says His Taxes About Settled

TOKYO, Nov. 14.—(P)—Joe Louis said today his income tax situation is "just about cleaned up."

But he added that he has no plans to retire.

The former world champion arrived by plane for a series of boxing exhibitions in major Japanese cities. A portion of the gate receipts will go to charity.

The Brown Bomber will meet volunteer opponents in the exhibitions. Four U. S. Navy men have been picked.

About his future plans, Louis said, "I'll make up my mind about those things when I get through with these exhibitions here in Japan."

McPhail Tops Big 7 Ground Gainers Now

In 7 Games He Has Ripped Off 684 Yards on 68 Tries

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 14.—(P)—Buck McPhail, who is getting as hard to stop as Oklahoma in its fourth straight championship march, continues to lead the Big Seven's ground gainers.

McPhail, the Oklahoma Sooners' junior fullback, knocked off 110 yards in 14 rushes as his team whipped Missouri 34-20 last week. That brought his total for 7 games to 684 yards on 68 rushes.

Playing second fiddle to the great Leon Heath last season, McPhail carried the ball only 19 times but the 202-pound Oklahoma City boy did average 3.5 yards.

Bob Brandeberry, Kansas Junior is second in total yardage with 606, but he's carried the ball 118 times — an average of 5.1 yards.

Dick Mann, Iowa State sophomore, completed 22 of 41 passes — for touchdowns — against Nebraska and continues to lead that department with 86 completions out of 173 attempts for 1,113 yards.

Zack Jordan, Colorado, is second with 719 yards on 49 of 99.

Tony Scardino, the Missouri freshman, climbed way up the passing ladder with 23 completions out of 42 pitches against Oklahoma. He has 653 yards, just four less than Kansas' Jerry Robertson with 39 out of 83.

Mal Schmidt, Iowa State end, is the leading pass receiver. Schmidt has taken in 27 tosses for 454 yards. Missouri's Junior Wren moved into second place with 25 receptions for 363. He caught 9 against Oklahoma.

When did the catching despite a broken bone in his hand. He injured the hand in the Colorado game four weeks ago, but didn't know he had a broken bone until this week. Bob Schoonmaker is being groomed as a possible successor to Wren for Saturday's game against Kansas State.

The Kansas Jayhawks also may be minus their leading pass receiver in their week-end game against Oklahoma A. and M. Bill Schaeke has glandular fever.

At least one Big Seven coach had cause for optimism. Bud Wilkinson of the Oklahoma Sooners, who play Iowa State, commented after yesterday's practice:

"If the team plays Saturday like it practiced today, then we'll be in pretty good shape."

The Iowa State workout was cut short by cold winds. The squad worked on both offense and defense.

Nebraska and Colorado, opponents this week-end, each emphasized pass defense in their sessions.

Players in First Deal Will Just Trade Sox

BOSTON, Nov. 14.—(P)—Now that the Boston Red Sox have made their first 1952 move—a four player straight swap with the Chicago White Sox—general manager Joe Cronin and Lou Boudreau, the new pilot indicate they will do much more player dickering during next month's baseball meetings.

They did not need owner Tom Yawkey's fabulous bankroll, obtaining outfielder-first baseman Don Lenhardt and veteran pitcher Randy Gumpert in exchange for young southpaw Chuck Stobbs and rookie infielder Mel Hoderlein.

Plans are underway to secure Moon Finney and his orchestra from Mexico for the program and dance. The seniors are sponsoring a floor show for the event. There will be no admission charges for the evening program, it was announced.

Prof. Hylick during the morning stressed no activity will interfere with the classes and should such arise that activity would be cancelled.

Meet In Main Event Thursday

Frank Altman

Neal Warren

The main feature on Thursday night's wrestling card sponsored by the Pettis County Post No. 16, American Legion will see Neal Warren, Columbus, Ohio, meeting Frank Altman, Seattle, Wash., for the best two falls out of three. This is a heavyweight elimination match in a tournament now under way.

Whittier Wins Red Ribbon League Title, Downs Twains

A determined band of Whittier grade school gridders clinched the red ribbon league championship at Liberty park Tuesday by defeating Mark Twain in a scoring battle, 40-35.

Mark Twain was only ten seconds away from an upset, but the clock stayed on the wall too long and Whittier's Tommy Bain bucked through the center of the MT line for the game-winning TD.

Mark Twain, coached by Kenneth Cordry, held a 21-19 halftime edge. The game, played on a wet field, was high-lighted by long runs and good blocking. It was a nip and tuck affair all the way with the clock playing the major role.

Dwight Hufstader went 40 yards on an end reverse for the first Whittier marker. Bobby McFatrach rammed across for the point.

Hufstader got the second Whittier score on a brilliant 70-yard return of a Mark Twain kickoff. McFatrach raced 60 yards for the third score.

Hufstader again swept end in the second half for his third TD, a 40 yard jaunt. A McFatrach aerial to Bishop was good for the extra point.

Then, with ten seconds remaining in the game, Bain crashed across from the two for the deciding marker. He also added the point.

Pat O'Mearly led Mark Twain with three touchdowns. Conrad Rothganger and Tony Walsh made the other scores. All three of these boys added extra points.

Much of Whittier's success this season can be attributed to the fine line play of Bill Griffith, center; Gary Beyner and Gary Smith, guards and Bill Bishop and Charles Brandcamp, ends. On defense, Ronny Dirch and Gene Meyer have been outstanding line backers.

The elimination of heavyweights to find a suitable opponent for Roy Dunn, Oklahoma, world heavyweight champion, is on and this week sees Frank Altman of Seattle, Wash., battling to hold his top rate. Altman is scheduled against Neil Warren, Columbus, Ohio, in the feature event of this Thursday night wrestling matches.

Warren, a real contender hopes to overthrow Altman and send him to the bottom of the list, and get an opportunity to win the top spot and the right to challenge Dunn.

This match, therefore, should prove something interesting for the fans to watch.

A new comer will be on the card and start his battle to try and get the chance of meeting the champion. He is Mara Dubra, Rio de Janeiro, who meets Johnny Dobbs of Omaha, Neb. in the opening event. Dobbs lost last week in the main event to Altman. The South American is expected to set the middle-west "on fire" with his invasion of this area of wrestling territory.

At a semi-final event two new girls will be in the ring in Frances Vermillion of Omaha, and Jeri Hunter of Bend, Ore. Both these girls are new to this section of the country and should provide a thrilling three fall event.

Karras & O'Connell Keep Illini No. 3

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Nov. 14.—(P)—If Rose Bowl-rushing Illinois, the nation's No. 3 team, needed a business name it would be Karras & O'Connell.

The unbeaten Illini barge into Ohio State in their semi-final Big Ten start Saturday with half-back Johnny Karras and quarterback Tom O'Connell responsible for exactly half of 2,289 yards rolled up by Illinois aloft and over-land in seven games.

Tulsa Leads All Football Offensively

Average 485.9 Yards Per Game; Arizona State Next In Line

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—(P)—Tulsa's Hurricanes have stormed to the top of the nation's major football teams in total offense with an average of 485.9 yards per game.

The Oklahoma Sooners, who netted 705 yards against Kansas State on Saturday, dislodged Holy Cross as the yardage leader. The Crusaders fell to third place behind Arizona State (Tempe), which has a mark of 445.1 yards.

Tulsa's potent ground attack also moved them to the top of the ladder in rushing. The Hurricanes have crunched along to the tune of 365.3 yards per game, according to figures released by the NCAA statistical bureau.

Arizona State bolted into second place in running with an average of 349.1, followed by the College of Pacific with 343.6.

Loyola of Los Angeles heads the passing parade for the seventh straight week. With Don Klosterman doing most of the tossing, Loyola has compiled a gaudy average of 212 yards a game. Oklahoma A. and M. maintains its runner up spot with a 189.3-yard average.

Princeton boasts the most accurate passing attack having completed 62.2 per cent of its aeriels.

Kentucky has thrown the most touchdowns passing 16. Tulsa has averaged 39.4 points per game to set the scoring pace.

In individual statistics, Princeton's Dick Kazmaier appears a cinch to sweep past Johnny Bright of Drake and capture the total offensive title. Kazmaier, with two games remaining, is only 83 yards behind Bright, who has finished his collegiate football career.

Bright totaled 1,553 yards in nine games, while Kazmaier has accounted for 1,470 in seven.

Veck Defends Garver After Boudreau Blow

Says Brown Hurler Was Under Pressure Winning With Losers

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 14.—(P)—Owner Bill Veck has jumped to the defense of Ned Garver, terming Boston Red Sox manager Lou Boudreau's appraisal of the St. Louis Browns pitching ace a silly statement.

Boudreau said Monday he would not swap Red Socker Ted Williams for Garver, No. 2 finisher in the Associated Press poll to determine the American league's most valuable player last season.

Not only did Boudreau spike rumors of a trade, but he also suggested Garver might not be an effective pitcher under pressure with a pennant contender.

That didn't set well with Veck, who once had Boudreau as manager of the Cleveland Indians.

In an interview yesterday, Veck said "that's a silly statement. Boudreau always has been a great competitor, and should recognize Garver as another."

"I wonder if Boudreau thought Garver had a picnic every time he pitched a game for the Browns. With a team like that behind him, he was always under pressure. All he had to do was make one mistake and that was the game."

Garver didn't make too many

"Who said Boston was such a great team?" Veck asked. "Why they are nothing but a bunch of morning glories who fade out just when the going gets rough?"

Veck warned to his subject and took a full swing at Boudreau's new charges.

Other Schools May Follow Yale, Quit Spring Football

NEW YORK, Nov. 14 (AP)—Many of the nation's major colleges were ready today to follow Yale's example of dropping spring football, but they were playing it cagey—they wanted assurances it be done on a national scale.

An attitude of watchful waiting generally followed the report that university presidents, alarmed over the future of the sport, were contemplating reforms likely to affect spring practice, bowl games and the two-platoon system.

Yale university, one of the Ivy-covered institutions that helped give birth to American football, announced yesterday that the Eli would drop spring practice, beginning in 1952.

Smaller colleges such as Williams, Wesleyan and Amherst already had taken such action. Yale was the first of the big ones.

Others had talked about it, such as the 17-member southern conference and the nine-member Pacific Coast. They recommended the move to their conference directors and to the National Collegiate Athletic association, the parent organization.

The Southern, by an overwhelming vote of its presidents, also recommended banning all bowl games. The Pacific Coast suggested reexamination of post-season football and the two-platoon system.

Here was the situation in other conferences:

Southeastern—Members known to favor spring practice and continuance of bowls, but these items placed on the agenda for the December conference meeting.

Eastern—Its some 90 members, including the strict Ivy league and many less strict independents, not committed to any course of action. Most of the Ivy schools said they planned to continue spring practice.

Southwest—Question of eliminating spring training and bowl games listed for discussion at meeting Dec. 7-8. Most members

Sporting Notes About Sedalia

Columbia's Hickman high school Kewpies, champions of the Central Missouri Conference, honored five Smith-Cotton high school gridirers on their recently released all-opponent team. They are ends Jim Dent and Herb Ford; guard Wilbur Baint; and backs Bill Arnold and Floyd Burton.

Ford and Dent were both injured against Columbia and didn't see action the entire contest.

We understand Smith-Cotton's players will release their all-opponent team after completing their season's schedule at North Kansas City Friday night. It will be interesting to watch and see how many Kewpies land berths on this team. To our thinking the Kewpies had the best team S-C faced this year and they should, and probably will, dominate the local's selection.

Only a small delegation of Sedalia fans attended the game at Mexico Friday to see the Tigers drop their second game of the season. If the game had been played at night a larger crowd probably would have attended, but the way it was only a few were there. We may have missed a few, but here's the faces we remember: Mrs. Ralph Dow, Mrs. Elmer Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Burton, W. S. Arnold, Mrs. Earl Lashley, Mrs. James Dent, Jim Menefee, Richard Emery, Sandra Ryan, Shirley Bennett, Johnna McKendree, Beth Whitfield, Dixie Gorrell, Shirley Smith, Skip Vinson, Janet Seaberg, Ray Young, Carolyn Belmer, Gearhart Jaeger, Harry W. Welch, Charles and Tony Walch, Marg Cummings and Bill Carpenter.

First Nation-Wide Marking Of Highways 25 Years Ago

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—(AP)—The first nation-wide action to prevent auto drivers from getting on the wrong road was taken just 25 years ago.

On Nov. 11, 1926, the American Association of State Highway Officials selected important interstate and transcontinental roads to carry uniform U. S. numbers throughout the country.

Before adoption of this system connecting interstate roads had different numbers in adjoining states or were marked by various colored stripes painted on telephone poles.

Up to that time motoring improvement efforts had been concentrated largely on getting the farmer out of the mud and keeping the dust out of the city motorists' neck and ears. Many good paved roads had been built by 1926, but several highways in the newly-established U. S. network were still gravel-surfaced for long distances.

Four-wheel brake and radiator shutters for winter driving were innovations of the period. Coast-to-coast auto trips won heavy headline attention, but advertising columns told you could go "motor-ing 'neath the harvest moon in an Essex coach" selling for $695 F.O.B. Detroit.

"Pavement scorers" and "joy-riders" were forerunners of today's "hot rod" operators. Many colleges banned student use of autos. One college official branded them "a waste of time, a menace to morals and a threat to academic democracy."

In 1926 the total mileage in the U. S. numbered network was about 100,000. These U. S. roads have been greatly improved and other routes added to the network. Mileage now totals some 159,000 of the nation's 3,000,000 miles of roads of all kinds.

While federal funds help finance the building and improvement of U. S. highways and other roads,

Many sections of road carry both U. S. and state route numbers. The U. S. number is distinguished by the familiar shield marker. State numbers have markers of special designs. Such as the key-stone of Pennsylvania, the state outline map of Missouri and the Indian head of North Dakota.

In the mid-'20s traffic congestion was a relatively small problem. The passenger car was just starting to advance from a Sunday-ride luxury to an everyday part of living. Motor vehicles in the United States numbered 22,000,000 compared to 50,000,000 today.
